What a great 2021-2022 season we had thanks to your amazing support! It was an unbridled joy to welcome you back in-person to Hartford Symphony Orchestra concerts at The Bushnell Center for the Performing Arts, special events, the Annual Meeting, the Bravo! Gala, the Wadsworth Atheneum, the Simsbury Meadows Performing Arts Center and numerous other events – gratitude abounds! The resumption of a nearly full schedule of concerts and events was our top priority during the last twelve months, supported by ongoing efforts to make the HSO experience as safe, flexible and fulfilling as possible. Our relentless focus on gathering in celebration of great music, sharing a common purpose and rebuilding community connections has been undoubtedly one of the most fulfilling aspects of our careers and service to the Hartford Symphony.

Highlights included opening night with Clarice Assad’s most unusual piece about a soccer superstar; our refusal to let the pandemic derail “From the New World” which we moved to the spring of 2022; more than 9,500 people enjoyed holiday and Harry Potter pops concerts; the glorious conclusion to the Masterworks series with Beethoven’s “Choral” Symphony and the stunning Glass Concerto for Saxophone Quartet; our first in-person gala in three years; the free Symphony in the park; and a truly unforgettable 2022 Talcott Mountain Music Festival with five gorgeous Fridays of outdoor exuberance!

Challenges remain. In particular, education and community engagement programs are still feeling the effects of greatly diminished student participation via public and private schools. But the tide seems to be turning. As our community’s adaptation to the pandemic evolves and public health procedures are updated, greater student participation seems possible this fall and through the 2022-2023 season.

And what a season it will be! 2022-2023 will bring more vibrancy to our stages than ever before, including a Halloween pops concert complete with spooky tales, plus a piano concerto for the left hand, break dancers, a community concert at Parkville Market, three premiere performances, a new artist in residence program, and, of course, the dazzling artistry of HSO musicians and our beloved Music Director, Carolyn Kuan.

Finally, it is our honor to announce a planned transition in leadership among the HSO’s Board of Directors. Effective September 27, 2022, at our Annual Meeting, the position of Chairman of the HSO Board of Directors will transfer to Bob Bausmith. Bob is a successful entrepreneur who has a deep commitment to community development and arts leadership. Among his passions are choral music, organ music, and, of course, orchestral music. Bob will be a dynamic leader for the Hartford Symphony and draw on years of experience in Board of Directors governance and organizational excellence. Jeff Verney will remain on the Board of Directors, so that he can continue to support the Hartford Symphony Orchestra for years to come.

We can’t thank you enough, our extended community family, for your unfaltering support and faith in our mission. Onward!

Jeff Verney
Chairman,
Board of Directors

Steve Collins
President and CEO
The fiscal year ending August 31, 2022 marked the return to a significant schedule of in-person performances, community programs and special events, and a full roster of administrative and artistic personnel. However, the pandemic continued to create sporadic yet insistent disruptions to the local performing arts marketplace. Intermittent COVID-19 variants compromised public health confidence and deterred steady redevelopment of earned revenue. The spring and summer months of 2022 brought improved results, ultimately generating $1.7M in earned revenue for the year - just 16% lower than the last complete pre-pandemic fiscal year of 2019. Contributed revenue remained consistent with previous seasons at $2.4M and was highlighted by a successful return to a traditional, in-person gala fundraising event which generated net income of $310,000.

Event and operating expenses were scaled to match programming, consistent with pre-pandemic levels plus inflation and post-pandemic market conditions. Continuing distributions from the Music Builds Community capital campaign and government sources further supported operations with a combined total of $718,875, resulting in preliminary net income of $377,134. Finally, endowed resources benefited from $334,833 in additional contributions via Music Builds Community and the newly established Endow Hartford 21 designated fund at the Hartford Foundation for Planned Giving. Despite these contributions and conservative endowment draw policies, market conditions diminished total market value. The six-year trend remains strong with an increase of 117% in cumulative new contributions and earnings.

The 2021-2022 season continued to prove the strength and resilience of the Hartford Symphony Orchestra. We were excited to present the long-awaited return to live music. Although it looked a little different, we welcomed you back to the Bushnell and experienced live music again. It was extraordinary.

We continued to offer unique orchestral experiences throughout our Masterworks series by bringing back our Piano Cam for select concerts, recorded Firebird- which featured guest artist Sirena Huang and so many more unique experiences throughout the season.

As the season progressed, we faced challenges with postponements and cancellations, but one of the most significant successes we had was our free Symphony in the Park concert, on Saturday, June 4. This community event brought together an array of community members to Bushnell Park to enjoy the HSO.

In July, Simsbury Meadows Performing Arts Center once again came alive with the music of the Talcott Mountain Music Festival, with five amazing nights under the stars! We could not have asked for better weather and the enthusiasm our patrons brought to each and every show was felt from the front of the stage all the way to the back of the field. The HSO was proud to unveil a new TMMF Logo this year as well as being awarded two big honors-voted CT’s Best Music Festival by the readers of Connecticut Magazine and Best Local Annual Event by the Hartford Courant.
LEARNING AND SOCIAL IMPACT

THE HSO WELCOMES COMPOSER QUINN MASON AS THE JOYCE C. WILLIS ARTIST IN RESIDENCE

The Hartford Symphony Orchestra has selected Quinn Mason as the Joyce C. Willis Artist in Residence for the 2022-2023 season, made possible through a generous grant from The Edward C. and Ann T. Roberts Foundation. Mason is the first of three one-year artists in residence named.

As part of his residency with the HSO, Mason is writing a new piece for orchestra that will be premiered at the closing concert of the 2022-2023 Masterworks Series season in June. In addition, he will be working with the Learning & Social Impact department on community and education initiatives with HSO partners throughout Hartford, including the South End Boys and Girls Club and students at Noah Webster MicroSociety Magnet School.

In late 2020, The Roberts Foundation announced the Joyce C. Willis Fund for Excellence and Equity in the Arts, a visionary initiative to support Black artists. In addition to the Hartford Symphony Orchestra, Hartford Stage and the Amistad Center were also granted gifts from the Roberts Foundation. The program is named in honor of Joyce C. Willis, a former Roberts Foundation board member, founding member and past board president of The Amistad Center, board member of the Hartford Symphony Orchestra, and ardent supporter of Hartford Stage.

THE YAC IS BACK!

On Saturday, May 17, five student musicians from across Connecticut competed in the 44th Young Artists Competition Finals accompanied by the HSO on the stage of the Greater Hartford Academy of the Arts.

Cellist Vien Le, a junior at Canton High School, took the day’s top prize. Le began studying cello at the age of four and had regularly participated in Suzuki string orchestras with conductor Emmett Drake. Le has also participated various chamber groups including her current trio as a cellist and duo as a pianist. She is currently in the Connecticut Youth Symphony at The Hartt School Community Division, and is also a percussionist and singer at her high school.

“Playing with the HSO was an honor and amazing experience,” said Le. “I have been attending HSO concerts my whole life, and to be able to play with them on stage was something I’ve never even imagined possible.”

In addition to performing with the HSO, the top three winners earned cash prizes of $1000, $750, and $500 respectively. Other winners included second place, cellist Christopher Hill; third place, violinist Samantha Kramer; and honorable mentions, cellist Tyler Ngai and pianist Braeden Shizume.

Le will be offered another opportunity to perform with the HSO this season. Last year’s co-first place YAC winners—violinist Tyler Tan and flutist Emily DeNucci—both soloed with the HSO during the 2022 season. DeNucci performed at our annual Holiday Cirque program, while Tan performed at our free Symphony in the Park concert and at Celebrate America at the Talcott Mountain Music Festival. Both students also performed duets with Susan Knapp Thomas, HSO principal harp, at the Annual Meeting last October.

To be eligible, contestants must be Connecticut residents in grades 9-12, and cannot be a previous first place winner of the YAC. Students select their own competition repertoire, which includes both a movement from a concerto or other major work and a piece for solo instrument. This season’s YAC application deadline is February 1, 2023.
ENDOW HARTFORD 21 - A LASTING IMPACT

In our 2021-2022 fiscal year, the Hartford Symphony Orchestra was one of 51 nonprofit organizations chosen to participate in Endow Hartford 21, a 1:2 matching gift endowment campaign, the first community-wide campaign of its type in our region. Endow Hartford 21, created by local philanthropist Henry Zachs with a $1 million dollar match, was envisioned as an initiative to strengthen nonprofit organizations throughout the Greater Hartford region. Thanks to the vision and leadership of the Zachs Family Foundation, other matching donors stepped forward to build an even more robust matching fund. The inclusion of the HSO as one of the beneficiary organizations recognizes our important role as a critical economic engine and an integral part of the extraordinarily rich quality of life in our region.

Thanks to generous HSO donors who stepped forward to support the Symphony through this unique campaign, the HSO was able to raise over $115,000 in endowment funds which are now held in a special account for the Hartford Symphony at the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving. The Endow Hartford 21 match was available between June 1, 2021, and June 30, 2022.

FORTE
ANNOUNCING Forte! HSO’S FIRST 45 & UNDER MEMBERSHIP GROUP

This past year, the Hartford Symphony Orchestra introduced FORTE! a 45 and Under membership group focused on bringing exclusive events and opportunities to the next generation of symphony fans and supporters. The idea of a “young professional” group at the HSO began in 2019, and when good friends and music loving symphony attendees, Matt Salner and Peter Brazaitis, joined the conversation, progress accelerated.

Within weeks of the first conversation with Matt and Peter, other passionate, young arts lovers were quickly identified and happily joined. With liaison support from HSO staff and Board, a diverse group of nearly a dozen individuals began to meet regularly to discuss ideas. The group openly shared their thoughts about events and experiences, and helped identified barriers, both real and perceived, for younger audiences. Even Covid could not deter the commitment of the group. HSO’s time away from the stage was put to good use in ongoing communications, and together, we developed a membership model targeted to ages 45 and under. The new friends organized Zoom happy hours and participated in virtual discussions with Carolyn Kuan. The initial working group became the Advisory Committee and chose the name FORTE! to aptly describe its new venture.

With the 22-23 concert season on the horizon, FORTE! membership has continued to grow, and we are confident that even more young professionals will be involved with FORTE! in the years to come.
On Thursday, June 16, over 430 guests, including FORTE! members who enthusiastically attended through specially priced “45 and under” tickets, gathered under an outdoor tent at the magnificent Farmington Polo Grounds, HSO’s Annual Bravo! Gala to raise funds in support of HSO’s vital music education and community engagement programs. The upbeat evening, hosted by Gala Co-Chairs MaryBeth Reiss and Diane Cantello, honored Jim Loree and Rebecca Corbin Loree for their many contributions to the Hartford Symphony over the years. The evening’s 30-minute performance by the Hartford Symphony Orchestra was conducted by HSO Assistant Conductor, Adam Kerry Boyles, and featured Guest Vocalist, SSgt Rachael Colman, singing George Gershwin’s, Someone to Watch Over Me, and Bob Merrill/Jule Styne’s Don’t Rain on My Parade. The evening’s program also included Gabriela Lena Frank’s “Mestizo Waltz” from Three Latin American Dances, and Leroy Anderson’s Horse and Buggy, truly appropriate for the evening’s equestrian backdrop!

Thanks to the generosity of donors, attendees and sponsors, our first in-person Gala in three years was a phenomenal success.

Thank you to everyone who made this return to in-person Gala a success! Please SAVE THE DATE for next year’s Bravo! Gala on Saturday, May 6, 2023, at the Connecticut Convention Center!

In furtherance of the HSO’s mission to “enrich lives and community through great music”, the 2021/2022 season included a special collaboration with the Institute of Living to underscore the importance of mental health treatment and the longstanding beneficial link between music and mental health.

The important connection between music and positive mental health is at the heart of this partnership. Our April 2022 concert was the perfect launching pad for our collaboration, as the concert featured the music of Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky and Sergei Rachmaninoff, two legendary artists who both endured lifelong struggles with depression. The pre-concert talks included an engaging and enlightening conversation between Music Director Carolyn Kuan and two renowned psychiatrists, Dr. Javeed Sukhera, MD, PhD, Chair of Psychiatry at the Institute of Living, and Dr. Hank Schwartz, MD, former Psychiatrist-In-Chief of the Institute of Living and helped highlight the important work of the IOL as well as the important links between music and emotional wellbeing.

As we learn more about the lives and struggles of so many great musical artists who endured mental health challenges, we recognize that we are bound together by our shared humanity, and that all of us have individual struggles that require acknowledgment and patience. There is nothing as profound as music to help us better appreciate our emotions and the deep connections we share with one another.

We know that great musical geniuses have struggled with mental illness and our collaboration with the IOL, as it celebrates 200 years as a leader in the field of psychiatry, is a poignant reminder that while mental health challenges and addiction can happen to anyone, treatment makes recovery and success possible.
The Hartford Symphony Orchestra gratefully acknowledges and thanks all of our supporters who contributed to the HSO's 2021-2022 season. You have provided the Symphony with crucial support for all of the HSO's programs, none of which could happen without you.
